

Gary McKee, II

Actor / Director / Writer

Non-Union / SAG Eligible
Los Angeles, CA

Gender	Male
Age Range	Young Adult (18-29)
Ethnicity	African American / Hispanic/Latino
Representation	No
Voice Age	Young Adult / Middle-age

Bio

Gary McKee is a former Lacrosse Player, Surfer, and Typists. A graduate of CSU Long Beach, Gary has performed in plays such as: The Boys Next Door (Lucien Smith), Pericles (Cleon/Lysimachus), Almost, Maine (Steve), Waiting for Godot (The Boy), and Bat Boy: The Musical (Rev. Hightower). Furthermore, he has had the pleasure of directing plays ranging from Chekhov to modern. Gary has trained at places such as: The Actors' Gang, Chekhov Studio International, and Steppenwolf. Gary is also a founding member of Street Shakespeare, where they perform Shakespeare without a director and no rehearsal. In his spare time, Gary loves to watch movies, practice kickboxing, and read novels.

Work History

EDUCATION
CSU Long Beach	Theater Arts Performance	Acting
SPECIAL SKILLS
Ear Wiggling	Swimming	Kickboxing
Fencing - Foil	Capoeira	Clown